

DESIGNERS OF THE YEAR

The award recognizes excellence in residential interior design from throughout North America.

On Friday, August 4th members and guests of the Interior Design Society (IDS) gathered at the Marriott Marquis in New York City to honor the winners of the 2023 Designer of the Year competition. The Master of Ceremonies, Carson Kressley, had the audience laughing and celebrating the entire evening.

“The Designer of the Year Awards recognizes excellence in residential interior design from throughout North America. It’s a significant honor to be selected as an award recipient,” said Jenny Cano, IDS Executive Director. “We are proud to have these designers as IDS Members.”

Also honored were Joe Calise and John Tudisco, who received the IDS Leadership Award. FLD
